

Talking Points:

February 22, 2019

→ Consejo Consultivo
Advisory Council

The Governor's current official statement concerning ICE activities in North Carolina is as follows:

"The bottom line is we need comprehensive immigration reform at the federal level that works to secure our borders without terrorizing communities, and that needs to happen now. People who have committed serious crimes should be arrested regardless of immigration status, but sweeping raids like these can separate innocent families and cause fear in communities that don't deserve to have that fear."